THE LATER EPISCOPAL RECTORY. God bless you.

Rev. Mr. Bannan of St. Joseph's church, I had just returned from Meriden when I was told that I was to make a speech at this meeting. You will see that I am not a very good speaker but I will do my best. I am sure that you will all be successful and that you will return home with honor.

Captain Penton: I know that you do not want to hear from me as you have seen many papers with my name signed to them and you have seen enough of me. I wish to say a few words to you. You will be a part of a distinct part of the service and you will like it. I am sure that you will all be successful and that you will return home with honor.
